

SIMPLE FAITH OR GULLIBLE FAITH?

Lean on Christ
Elizabeth Wang

Simple faith focuses on Jesus.

It listens to the preacher,
but weighs everything the preacher says against the words and the Spirit of Jesus.

Gullible faith focuses on the preacher.

If the preacher says it's true, it's true.
If the preacher says there's a conspiracy, it shouts "Amen!" and spreads the word.
If the preacher tells it how to vote, it obeys without a second thought.

Simple faith is both child-like and wise.

Trust Jesus
Elizabeth Wang

And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them, and said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:2-3

Simple faith can see that the Emperor has no clothes.

Gullible faith has a lazy mind and a childish heart.

Gullible faith hails the naked Emperor with gusto.

“Take heed that no one leads you astray.”

Matthew 24:4

Prayer: Lord Jesus, we long for a child-like faith, a simple faith that draws our heart to you in all things. A faith that loves you, adores you so much... that we cannot be misled by any opinion, teaching or doctrine that blatantly veers from your holy nature... We long for a faith that is simple, yet wise, recognizing and acknowledging vulgarity when we see it, the naked emperors around us. Open our minds to our own gullibility. Heal them, so we lean on you, only you for true guidance.
