

WALKING IN THE LIGHT

Into Light
Elizabeth Wang T-00070-OL

If we walk in the light as he is in the light we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, cleanses us from all sin.

I John 1:7

But am I actually walking in the light?

If I'm "making an impression",

am I walking in the light?

If I'm flattering my neighbor,

am I walking in the light?

If I despise Republicans,

am I walking in the light?

If I sneer at Democrats,

am I walking in the light?

It's great to believe in the light.

It's wonderful to trust in the light.

But the light is not mine until I walk in it.

With no pretense.

No "agenda".

Wide open, clear as crystal.

Jesus guides us From Darkness

To walk in the light is to follow the footsteps of One in whom there is no darkness.

“I am the light of the world. He/she who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”
John 8:12

Forget about all the “extras” added to the gospel by centuries of custom and tradition.

Scrape off the crust of “doctrinal issues’ and “theological disputes”, and “philosophical critiques”.

Focus on the simple direction of Jesus to each of us.

His words alone are Spirit and Life.

They show us the way.

They give us the power we need to walk the walk.

When Jesus said to Matthew, “Follow me”, Matthew got up and followed.

From that day Matthew simply walked in the Master’s words.

He needed no “spiritual adviser”.

He needed no “commentaries.”

Matthew knew what to do.

And so do we.

“I am the light of the world. He/she who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

Prayer

Lord Jesus, true light of the world, we say we seek your light yet we continue to stumble in the darkness of our beliefs, critiques, and agendas. In your mercy, dispel this darkness from our minds and souls. Help us to let go of anything we believe in, anything we cling to, that deters us from living your truth. Warn us so we are alarmed when we begin to veer into darkness. Pull us back, give us a loathing for anything that draws us away from your teachings. Instead give us an overwhelming desire to walk in the way of your beautiful, life giving words so we may have the light of life.
