

I WILL GUIDE YOU WITH MY EYE

I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go.
I will guide you with my eye.

Psalm 32

For a long time the one who wrote those words refused to admit that he was on the wrong path.

When I declared not my sin, my body wasted away through my groaning all day long.

For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me;
my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer.

All this man had to do was to bring the mess to the Lord and confess it with a penitent heart.

Why not?

Where else could he go?

At last he broke down and did it.

I acknowledged my sin to thee,
and I did not hide my iniquity;

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD";
then thou didst forgive the guilt of my sin.

From this point on, things began to change.

And things will change for us, if we do what this man did.

Thou art a hiding place for me,
thou preservest me from trouble;
thou dost encompass me about with songs of deliverance.

When Jesus calls us to repent, he's simply telling us to give up the play-acting.

To open our heart to God.

When we learn to do this every day, we are ready to be guided by the Lord.

I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go.
I will guide you with my eye.

Prayer- O Lord, we feel your hand heavy upon us. Our strength is sapped. We cannot go on like this. O Lord we confess our sins, we repent of all that separates us from you. Forgive us, cover our sins. Deliver us from our troubles. Fill us with songs of deliverance again. Surround us with your loving kindness. We ask you to never stop keeping your eye on us, teaching us, guiding us away from evil, and preventing us from wandering away from your precious presence. MM
