Website- mmirror.net

Maranatha Mirror's website is mmirror.net (double m). The website posts messages with art and prayer and has an archive of hundreds of digital and audio sermons. A memorial page/blog about Dick Bieber is hoped to be added in 2022. If you want to add to the memorial or have experience setting up a blog in Word Press, please contact us.

Messages- Sermons/Shorts-Digital &Audio

Maranatha Mirror has hundreds of archived sermons and short messages written by Dick Bieber. The messages are available in digital, print and audio format. See the mmirror.net website for digital and audio copies. Some sermons are only accessible in audio format on the website (they have not been transcribed). A few hundred cassette tapes have yet to be digitized and transcribed before the tapes disintegrate. We no longer have the equipment to format CD's.

Email Postings & Social Media

Messages are sent out bi-weekly to people signed up for emails. Sign up at MaranathaMirror18@gmail.com or click the subscribe link on the website. Maranatha Mirror has a Facebook Page that posts weekly. We are interested in posting more frequently and/or on other social media platforms as God leads.

STREET WORK/SEEKER TRACTS

These beautiful, inspiring messages are meant to speak truth to the heart of non-believers and seekers by encouraging them to see and seek the presence of God in their lives. They are inspiring without being patronizing. The ministry has 500 or so street work tracts. These can be made into single sheets or trifold. Bundles are available. Your ministry information can be printed on the tracts. Contact us for titles and to order.

SHORTS

Dick Bieber wrote short messages prolifically. Most of these shorts were meant to help “People of the Way” to heed the call of the Master. There are 2000+ short messages in our archives. The website features the most recent shorts on the homepage and one or two are emailed weekly to subscribers. A spreadsheet with titles and short synopsis’ is available on website or can be emailed upon request.

Colored Pamphlets: Messages with Art

The list below includes messages that include art. The beautiful, moving art is from Christian and Prophetic artists from all over the world who have kindly allowed us to include their art.

These pamphlets (4-12 pages) are great for devotions and small study groups. Any message/sermon from the archives can be made into colored pamphlets upon request. New pamphlets are formatted weekly.
