

THE PLACE OF AWE

Gazing Into His Beauty Lisa MD Skinner

As long as I am preoccupied with myself...

...my opinions,

...my resentments,

...my fears,

...my impatience with "the way things are,"

it is impossible to know the presence of God.

God is there.

His light surrounds me and penetrates my soul.

But I am unaware.

Blind to the light.

Deaf to the sound of his voice.

....UNTIL

Search the Heavens Lisa MD Skinner

I stumble into a place of awe.

No wonder my spirit trembles!

I'm standing on holy ground!

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name!

When this happens to you, (and it will, as surely as you are reading these words) ...

Pay attention.

Hold still and listen.

Before you is the open door to God's world.

This is your burning bush.

The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come,"
And let him who hears say, "Come,"
And let him who is thirsty come,
Let her who desires take the water of life without price.

Revelation 22:17

Rejoicing in the Lord Lisa MD Skinner

Prayer- Yes Lord, help us to let go of our preoccupations and all distractions so we can find your presence that always surrounds us. Bring us to the place of awe, to the place our hearts focus on you and know your holiness, to the place our souls truly hallow you. Help us to hear you calling us to come, may you be our greatest thirst, and may we be filled with thanks, gratitude, and joy as we drink deeply of the water of life you freely give. Amen. Maranatha Mirror

Message: REB 2010

Featured Art: Courtesy and kindness of Lisa Marie Dole Skinner at lisamdskinnerart.com

Maranatha Mirror Messages

mmirror.net

maranathamirror18@gmail.com

THE LAMB
WHO WAS SLAIN
HAS BEGUN HIS REIGN