

RECONNECTING

Faith in God can be pretty empty, when you feel disconnected.

"Yes, I believe in God, but much of the time I wonder whether God believes in me."

"Does he see me?"

"Does he know what I'm going through?"

"I feel disconnected from 'the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.'"

If only those moments of clear vision would come more often! Why do we have to spend our days in this twilight zone of uncertainty?

The men and women who walked this road before us learned how to reconnect with God day-by-day, hour-by-hour, and moment-by-moment.

They did it by deliberately "setting their minds on things above."

By setting their minds on the things of the Spirit.

By "abiding in the Vine" with an act of the will.

The faulty connection is not on God's side, but on ours.

Repairing the faulty connection is not God's job but ours.

"If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, appears... then you also will appear with him in glory."

Colossians 3:1-4

Message: REB 2003

Featured Art: Neil Breebaart at Facebook. com/BreebaartNeil

Maranatha Mirror Messages