

LORD OF THIS MESS?

It could be our church,
our home,
our personal life.

When we wake up and discover that something's radically wrong....things are in a mess,

Our first temptation is to jump in and fix things.

We try to figure out who's to blame.

We cast about for solutions.

We set new goals, devise strategies.

Meanwhile, the Lord stands by waiting for us to do the one thing needful:

To turn to him.

Seeking his face.

Jesus is Lord----even over this mess!
He alone can show us the way----
---if we will but turn to him.

"I am the light of the world.
Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

John 8

Prayer: Lord we lay these messes in our lives at your feet, knowing no matter how we try to fix and untangle them...it is you, and only you who can fix them. We acknowledge you are Lord of them. We turn to you. Show us the way, show us the way. May these messes cause our hearts to burn with a need of you, a need to truly see your face, hear your voice, and to follow you out of the darkness into the light you have for us. Amen.
