

TIMID SAINTS

We tell ourselves we're being discrete, mature, wise.

.....So discrete people rarely hear the good news from us.

.....So wise the truth is silenced.

Maybe we're simply timid.

Or is it vanity masked as timidity?

What happened to the boldness we once had?

What happened to the confidence and joy that once ignited the lives we touched?

Maybe we need to draw near to the flame again

The flame which once set us on fire.

That flame is only a prayer away.

And now, Lord, look upon their threats, and grant to thy servants to speak thy word with all boldness, while thou stretchest out thy hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of thy holy servant Jesus." And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God with boldness.

Acts 4

Prayer: Yes Lord, help us to draw near to you again...to your holy flame. Ignite us, set us on fire, burn away any timidity; So we may truly speak your word with boldness, with confidence....so that your healing pours out, your signs and wonders are seen and known...and so that when we speak the world around us is shaken with your holy power.
