

FROM BENEATH THE RUBBLE

When the light begins to search our soul,

It's not a pretty picture.

We see piles of rubble, from our failures and our sins.

But if we listen, we can hear a cry coming from beneath the rubble.

It's called hope.

Hope is a gift.

Hope is a miracle.

Hope knows how to break through the rubble, clear it away, and guide us on a new path.

The root of Jesse shall come.

He who rises to rule the Gentiles.
In him shall the Gentiles hope.

Isaiah 11:10

As you read these words, my prayer is that the spark of hope beneath the rubble in your soul will burst into flame.

And become your guide.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that , by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

Romans 15:13

Prayer: Oh Lord how far hope seems from us as we look back upon the rubble of our lives. Help us to hear the call of hope from beneath our failures and sins and to grasp it and let it pull us out of the rubble. We thank you that you are the God of hope...may we know this and believe this so strongly that it fill us with peace and joy. And yes, as we reach to you in the midst of the rubble, may our souls burst into flame. Amen.

Maranatha Mirror

Message: Richard E. Bieber 2012

Featured Artist: Courtesy and kindness of Ross Boone at rawspoon.com

Maranatha Mirror Messages

mmirror.net

