

I'M SCARED

Don't tell anybody, but deep down, I'm scared about the future.

So many uncertainties.

So many people who cannot be trusted.

Sleazy politicians who could take us all down the tube.

Even my fellow believers seem distant and aloof.

So where do I turn?

Where else, but to God?

Let all that I am wait quietly before God, for my hope is in him. He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress where I will not be shaken. My victory and honor come from God alone. He is my refuge, a rock where no enemy can reach me. O my people, trust in him at all times. Pour out your heart to him, for God is our refuge. (Psalm 62:5-8)

There is no other rock on which to stand. There is no other rock on which to build my life.

Whoever hears these words of mine and keeps them, is like a wise man who built his house upon a rock. (Matthew 7:24)

Prayer: Dear Lord, we admit we are scared about so many things, our health, the future, the country, our churches, our families. So many uncertainties assault our hearts and minds. Oh Lord, you are the sweet refuge from our fears, from chaos and our disappointments. Help us to still our hearts before you and pour out the uncertainties and the fears that overwhelm us. Because, Lord, you are our certainty, our hope, our rock, our refuge.... and we trust you with our future, our journey, our destiny. We know that in you, our rock, we will not be shaken and we will find victory. Amen.

Maranatha Mirror

Message: Richard Bieber 2019

Featured Art: Permission and courtesy of Jedida Sark at jedida-theartofsark

Maranatha Mirror Messages

