

INSIGNIFICANT?

Significance

Nellie Holmes

Even those servants of God who have made their dent in the world fade into insignificance soon after their hour of fame has passed.

"As for us, our life is like grass.
We grow and flourish like a wildflower;
then the wind blows on it, and it is gone—
no one sees it again."

Psalm 103 (GNT)

Significance in the eyes of the world is a fragile thing....

Fragile and empty.

But when we begin living our lives before the eyes of God, leaving earthly "significance" to the celebrities, we suddenly become significant in the only way that counts:

The heavenly Father who rules the distant galaxies, yet cares about each sparrow....

...is personally interested in you....and everything about you.

You are significant to him.

You count.

And your love for him and obedience to his word, will accomplish more in five minutes than an "American Idol" could achieve in a lifetime.

"Praise the Lord, my soul!
All my being, praise his holy name!
Praise the Lord, my soul,
and do not forget how kind he is.
He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases.
He keeps me from the grave
and blesses me with love and mercy.
He fills my life with good things,
so that I stay young and strong like an eagle.."

Psalm 103

To the living God you are more significant that you will ever know....this side of the grave.

Prayer: Thank you Lord that despite our limited days and our limited significance in the eyes of the world that we are significant to you...the Holy of Holies, that you care for everything about us. How amazing and indescribable it is that you love each of us in such a way. How wonderful you are. We sing to you for your kindness and care, for your blessings, for giving us life, for this beautiful earth and all of creation, and for making your light shine upon us in this world. We cannot form the words that can describe how grateful we are that we are significant to you. But may the wonder of it continue to well up in our hearts so we can sing of it daily...even in the midst of our insignificance in this life. Amen.
