

YOUR FAITH HAS MADE YOU WHOLE

Who of us has not wondered why our faith seems flimsy compared with the faith of the woman who touched the hem of Jesus' garment?

Her faith.

Lord, why can't I attain to her faith? Why is my faith so shallow? Help me!

For those of us who stumble and stagger, when it comes to faith, here's the good news:

If we begin to hang around the Master, and listen to his words, we get help.

Our faith starts to grow.

When we start doing the things he tells us to do....

We get more help.

Soon we discover that faith is not a mental state but a walk, a life lived by trust in the Unseen Mercy.

And behold, a woman who had suffered from a hemorrhage for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment; for she said to herself, "If I only touch his garment, I shall be made well." Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well."

And instantly the woman was made well. (Matthew 9)

Prayer: Lord, help us to draw ever closer to you, to trust you, to listen to you, to reach out and touch you, to have faith that will make us whole. May our hearts say again and again.... "If only I can touch him, I can be well, I can be whole". May we never lose faith in your mercy and healing on our lives and the ability to reach out and follow. Amen.
