

WHO'S AT THE DOOR?

It's a door that has no window.
I can't see who it is that's knocking.

But I know who's there.

"Who is it?" I shout.

Silence.

Why doesn't he answer? Why doesn't he identify himself?

Because he knows that I know who it is.

No one can mistake that knock.

The things that have been happening to me,

The words I'm hearing at every turn, point to only one person.

It's the knock of a Friend.

A Friend who has done more for me than any friend I've even known.

It's the knock of the Crucified and Risen One.

Now he breaks the silence and calls me by name.

Offers to fill my life with his presence.

All I have to do is open the door.

"Behold I stand at the door and knock.
If anyone hears my voice and opens the door,
I will come in to him and eat with him and he with me."

Revelation 3:20

It is within your power, Friend, to open your door at this moment ....

....to the One who's been knocking for a long time.

Prayer: Lord, thank you for loving us enough to keep knocking on our doors. Help us to stop ignoring your knocking, help us to open our ears and our hearts and to open the door to you, the dearest of friends who has nothing but good for us. And yes, Lord, as we timidly open the door, may we feel your embrace, your acceptance and take your offer of sweet fellowship with us and be filled with your living presence once again. Amen.
