

BAREFOOT AT THE BURNING BUSH

It's easy to miss our encounter with God, if we fail to take our shoes off.

When we fail to hallow God's name, the Burning Bush ceases to burn.

The Prince of Darkness knows that the easiest way to corrupt our faith is to make us glib.

Hallowed be thy Name.

If we miss that part of the Lord's Prayer, the prayer dries up.

Hallowed be thy Name

When we come before God in prayer we are in the presence of the Holy.

Hallowed be thy name

When we walk the walk of faith each day.... we are in the presence of the Holy.

The Burning Bush hovers above us as we follow the Shepherd.

....as long as we remain spiritually barefoot.

“How can you believe if you accept glory from one another, yet do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?”

John 5:44

Prayer: Lord, what a waste of all you offer us when we fail to seek your glory, when we fail to take our shoes off, when our minds are focused on how we see others and how others see us... instead of on your eternal presence, your holiness, your perfect goodness. Lord, help us to stop taking your presence casually. May we take our eyes off others and ourselves, may we come barefoot to your burning bush, focused on your holy presence alone... So we may hallow you in every way. Amen.

Message: Richard E. Bieber 2015

Featured Artist: Patrick Marrin from the series Pencil Preaching found in the National Catholic Reporter (NCR)

Maranatha Mirror Messages

mmirror.net

