

SUPERIOR HUMILITY

Sometimes our "humility mask" slips a bit, and to our own horror an ugly arrogance shows itself.

We hope nobody noticed.

But they did.

They saw the ugly reality behind the mask, and were stunned.

What do we do now?

We can replace the mask, and hope for the best.

Or we can get over ourselves and repent in dust and ashes.

Living behind a mask of "superior humility" never lasts.

Sooner or later we are exposed.

And there are simple souls who see right through us, even when the mask is on tight.

The only one who is deceived by the mask of "superior humility" is the one who wears it.

Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known.

Luke 12

Prayer: Prayer: Lord, uncover our masks of superior humility so that we can stop deceiving ourselves and repent of our misplaced arrogance and come before you as we truly are for the healing we desperately need. Amen.
