

IF I BELIEVED A LIE?

If I sincerely believed what my teacher told me, and it turns out to be a lie, am I accountable?

Who was your teacher?

If your teacher was Jesus, he would never have taught you to believe a lie.

If your teacher was Jesus, you would have discerned that lie a mile away.

But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brethren. And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven.

Neither be called masters, for you have one master, the Christ.

Matthew 23

If we were taught to believe a lie, we were taught by the wrong teacher.

If a hundred thousand believers were taught to believe a lie, they were not taught by the Lord Jesus.

Liars always claim to be speaking the truth.

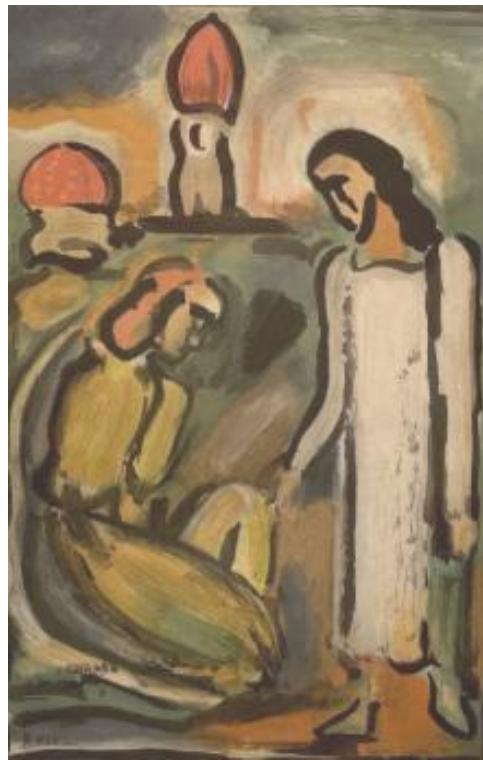

Liars always wrap themselves in sheep's clothing.

Liars rise to high positions in this world....

....For this world (including Christendom) is still in the grip of the Father of Lies.

If I discover that I was misled, I have no choice but to face the truth.

And to turn to the one Teacher who never lies.

He waits for me with open arms.

Those the Father has given me will come to me, and I will never reject them.

John 6:37

Prayer: Lord, we grieve the grip the Father of lies has on this world...the conspiracy theories, the ugly insinuations, the slander of the innocent, the lies that turn us from mercy and compassion, the lies that justify and excuse human suffering. Save us from these lies wrapped in packaging that are making even those who claim your name accept them. Lord, wake us up, help us to stop believing these lies from the pit of hell. Help us to draw so close to you, to embrace what you have taught us so dearly that we can once again easily discern lies from a mile away. And thank you, Lord, that despite our tendency to be easily misled that you don't reject us, you don't cast us out, and that you are waiting for us with open arms once we are ready to face the truth and make you and only our master again. Amen.
