

DOES HE HAVE TO TRIP YOU?

You pass him every day.

Every day he reaches out with his trembling hand.

You don't see him?

Does he have to trip you to get your attention?

Lazarus is God, giving you a chance to love him.

Lazarus is God, enabling you to show your gratitude.

Lazarus is God, calling you to open your eyes.

Lazarus is God, warning you to unplug your ears.

When you walk by Lazarus with your eyes av....

You are walking by God.

You are ignoring the call of the Lord Jesus.

You are stumbling into Darkness.

God approaches us as Lazarus? Yes!

He's the stranger who needs you.

She's the friend seeking a listening ear.

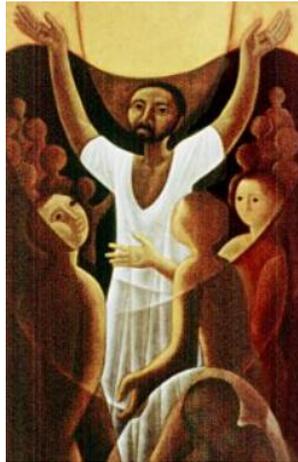

The enemy fallen into hard times.

The Living God is as close to each of us as Lazarus who lies at our gate.

“Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you.”

Luke 6

Prayer: Lord, forgive us for avoiding the Lazarus's in our lives and tripping over you as we blindly stumble by. Help us to stop averting our eyes to their need and to you reaching for us, through them. Open our eyes, open our ears, open our hearts, and open our wallets. Help us to find you as we stop, as we love, as we listen, as we look deeply, and as we care in every way we can. Help us to be so thankful for what you have given to us that we turn our thanks into generosity by giving and giving and giving in ways that will pour blessings into broken lives and into our own as well because we will find you as we do. Amen.
